WAS IT POOR MANAGEMENT

That Lost the Last Two Games to Waterbury.

With Five Players Waterbury Won Three Out of Four—With Six Players We Lost the Only Two Played—Hartford Beat Springfield and They are Again Tied for First Place—Standing of the Clubs.

The game at New Haven last night is thus described by the New Haven Journal and Courier:

The large crowd that attended the polo game at Bowling hall, last night, saw one of the fastest and most exciting games that has been played here this season. It was one of those old-time, up-hill games that the New Haven team have so often in days gone by plucked out of the fiery furnace. They turned what at times seemed an almost certain defeat into a well earned victory. Last night's contest was one that will for days to come redound to the credit of the New Havens. While the Waterburys played their full and regular team, New Haven, on the other hand, not only played with a broken-up team, but also played in the hardest of luck. Bone was unable to play through family sickness, and the team was made up with Charlie Lattons at half-back and Mallory at goal. Whipple and Leydon were the rushers, while Hobe Whiting played center.

In the first period only one goal was made and that by Whipple for the New Havens. Shortly after the second period opened Wiley for Waterbury tied the score, but Whipple on a pass from Leydon again sent the home team ahead. A few seconds later the ball was accidentally caged by Lattons and the Waterburys were again ascending. It was not for long, however, as Whipple again sent the leather spinning past Sward. The first goal in the third period was the result of another accident, and Waterbury again led. Three other goals fell to Waterbury in quick succession and the crowd became disheartened. The tenth goal of the game was a piece of clever work by Leydon, for which he was roundly applauded. With the winning of this goal and urged on by the plaudits of the audience, Captain Whiting and his men took a new lease of life and played all around the Waterburys. After some hard play Whipple again beat Sward and the excitement once more took a leap upwards. But it was within a minute of the going sounding for hostilities to cease that excitement rose to fever heat. At this stage Whipple, by a clever side drive, scored for the home team and tied the score. Here the crowd rose on masses and cheered and counter cheered, while some threw their hats, caps or anything they could get hold of in the air. It was a scene of the wildest excitement and will not soon be forgotten by those who saw it. Shortly after this the gong sounded, and the teams started in to decide the contest. For some time it looked as if time would be up without either side being able to score, so well did Mallory and Sward keep the opposing forwards at bay. For nearly thirteen minutes the ball traveled from cage to cage until Whipple got in one of the side shots which he won the game amid the wildest excitement. The Waterbury team in general put up a fast and clean game of polo. The summary:

New Haven	Position	Waterbury	Time
Whipple	first rush	Roberts	4:06
Leydon	second rush	Griffin
Whiting	center	Wiley-Williams
Mallory	goal	Sward
Lattons	halfback	Holders
Won by	Caged by	Time
New Haven	Whipple	4:06
Waterbury	Wiley	15:22
New Haven	Whipple	4:03
Waterbury	Accident	37
New Haven	Whipple	1:39
Waterbury	Roberts	4:03
Waterbury	Roberts	2:00
Waterbury	Griffin	40
Waterbury	Roberts	1:35
New Haven	Leydon	34
New Haven	Whipple	7:19
New Haven	Whipple	2:13

Score, New Haven 7, Waterbury 3; stops, Mallory 45, Sward 37; fouls, Lattons, Holderness, Williams, Lattons; referee, Leahy; timer, Ault.

At Hartford.

By defeating Springfield last night, says the Courant, the Hartford polo team is again tied with Providence in the race. Neither team played very fast last night, but Hartford put up a much superior game, as the record of the goal tends show. The Springfielders did a lot of passing that did not accomplish anything and only served to make the game slow. Hartford scored twice in the first period, Mooney caging both the goals. Mooney became tired at the close of the first period and Cotter took his place on the rush line, while Maynard played at center. Maynard was tangled up with Hipson several times, and once, when both players went the length of the rink locked together with a deathlike grip. Lush called fouls on them. Springfield evened up matters in the second period by making two goals. Mooney resumed business at the old stand in the third period and Hartford took the lead again when Mooney made a difficult drive from the side. A short time before the close Springfield tied the score again. The game was won by a drive of Wodtke's, 1 minute and 33 seconds before time was up.

About 2,000 were present. Score, Hartford 4, Springfield 3; rushes, Hipson 7, Mooney 3; fouls, Hipson 1, Maynard 1; stops, Cusick 27, Smith 40; referee, Lush; timer, Lyons.

POLO NOTES.

Oh, dear! Now let's get together for a minute.

The chances are that the season will not be extended to April 1. We think after all it will be wise to close on schedule time.

The New Britains would like to see George Harrington referee another game up there. Secretary Olin can satisfy their longing.

Whipple has turned out to be the fastest and best partner for Bone that the New Havens have had this season.—New Haven Union.

The Rough Riders have little excuse for losing to that crazy-quilt team last night. And we led 6 to 2 up to the last period in the bargain.

Is Long John a hoodoo? We think not, for he seems to be able to make goals. But the winning combination seems to have been broken up.

Speaking of those Meridens, they have won nine out of the last thirteen games played. If—if—if—"The saddest of all—it might have been."

We told you that Whipple of the New Havens was a dandy. 'Twas he who sent in the winning goal in New Haven last night, besides playing a star game throughout.

Give Long John the glad hand to-night when he appears upon the surface. We think John is just about due to play the game of his life against New Britain this evening.

To-morrow night the Waterburys take a much needed rest and on Friday night we have our old friends the Meridens, here to see us. We imagine we can see Meriden's finish already.

Providence will play its last game of the season in this city a week from next Friday night. The Grays will doubtless be given a rousing farewell by a large crowd of rosters on that occasion.

That was a pretty hard trip of the Rough Riders, any way. Saturday night in Providence, Monday night in New Britain and last night in New Haven. It wasn't a bad record to come out with even one victory.

Eight out of every ten rosters in Waterbury would rather see Providence win the pennant than Hartford. If Waterbury stands no show of first place. And Hartford in the same state with us, too. Strange, isn't it?

Just why Manager Doe of Waterbury played Wiley again when the team had been winning right along it is hard to say. It was poor policy to take out a good man like Holderness and put in a weaker one.—Bridgeport Post.

Springfield gets two home games today. New Haven plays there this afternoon and Hartford is there this night. Waterbury has a good chance to spurt ahead once more, as Providence will doubtlessly receive a trimming in Meriden to-night.

Well, the New Britain howlers will be here to-night and the crowd will have a chance to see Jean and Doherty, the two gentlemen who received such harsh treatment in Meriden on Saturday night. These two players are the roughest and most aggressive blockers in the league. Waterbury must win to-night.

It may be all right to say that Hartford and Springfield do their utmost to wallop each other and that, therefore, the fact that one man owns both teams cuts no figure. But it certainly looks suspicious that each team has won an equal number of games from the other—six and six. Hartford invariably wins from Springfield at home, and vice versa. And people will talk, you know.

The indications are that Bristol will be represented by a base ball team in the state league this year. An effort will be made by some of the fans to secure the Danbury Athletic club last night. The men were matched at catch weights, but Hopkins was several pounds the heavier. McCue had the best of the bout all the way through, but it was agreed that if both men should be on their feet at the end of 20 rounds it would be declared a draw.

M'CUE-HOPKINS BOUT.

Stamford, Feb. 22.—Marty McCue and Joe Hopkins, both of New York, fought a 20-round draw before the Stamford Amateur Athletic club last night. The men were matched at catch weights, but Hopkins was several pounds the heavier. McCue had the best of the bout all the way through, but it was agreed that if both men should be on their feet at the end of 20 rounds it would be declared a draw.

BRODERICK WON.

Providence, R. I., Feb. 22.—Fatsy Broderick defeated Sisto Gautier, known as "Young Sisto," in the ninth round of a fifteen-round go at Thornton last night. It needed only a punch to put Sisto out. A preliminary six-round bout between Walter Allen and Paul Hines was stopped in the sixth by the police. This was declared a draw.
